GROOMING AND ACCESSORIES

As the purpose for wearing a uniform is to allow the students to focus on their academic and spiritual growth, there are additional Dress Code practices that must be observed.

- Students will be well groomed at all times. This includes fundamental hygiene, as well as uniforms being clean and in good repair. This further includes that shirts be tucked in at all times and that where belt loops are present, a belt is worn. Belts must be plain and free of ornamentation.
- Hair length for boys shall not exceed one-and-a-half inches on top or sides, and should be above the collar in the back. Bangs shall not be lower than the top of the eyebrows. Braided hairstyles for boys shall also be above the collar. No facial hair is permitted, including moustaches, goatees, or sideburns that extend below the middle ear. Hairstyles shall be conservative. Mohawks, sculpting or shaved decorations are not permitted. Hair decorations for girls shall not distract from the overall conservative look of the Saint Stanislaus School uniform. No student, male or female, shall be permitted to alter the color of his/her hair in any way.
- Jewelry for girls is limited to one necklace, a watch or bracelet and one small pair of earrings. No other piercings are permitted.
- Boys may wear a necklace, watch or bracelet, but may not wear earrings.
- Necklaces for both boys and girls must be school appropriate.
- Make-up (including tinted lip-gloss) is not permitted. Nail polish or fake/acrylic fingernails may not be worn, even on Dress Down Day, Picture Day, etc.

DRESS CODE EXCEPTIONS

On Dress Down Days, children may wear casual attire such as jeans (without holes, frayed hems, etc.) or sweat pants. Walking shorts that are no more than one-and-a-half inches above the knee can be worn. Skirts and dresses may not be worn more than two inches above the knee. T-shirts may not have slogans or logos that are inappropriate for the school environment. Shirts shall be long enough so that as the child stands, sits, or moves, no flesh is visible between top and bottom. Shoes must not be backless. Students may also wear the school uniform if they wish.

On a child's birthday, students may wear dress down or dress up clothing, following the same guidelines for appropriateness as stated within the general uniform code and Dress Down Day. If a child's birthday falls on the weekend, it may be celebrated the following Monday.

When a parent chooses a school with a uniform policy, it is the responsibility of the parent to see that the student complies with the expectations on a consistent basis. Refusal to adhere to the Dress Code policy is an indication that the parent and/or child refuses to accept our school rules. Continual disregard for Saint Stanislaus School's Dress Code is grounds for removal from our enrollment.

THE ADMINISTRATION RESERVES THE RIGHT TO RULE ON ALL QUESTIONS RELATING TO THE AREAS OF DRESS AND GROOMING NOT COVERED BY THIS CODE. THE FINAL DECISION REGARDING DRESS CODE VIOLATIONS RESIDES WITH THE PASTOR AND/OR PRINCIPAL.
